

Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology

There are two departments of Obstetrics & Gynecology Unit 1 & Unit II. The department of Obstetrics & Gynecology has 51 beds in AKhtar Saeed Trust Hospital and 35 beds in Farooq Hospital. There are 1st & 2nd stage labour rooms, fully equipped operation theater, neonatal resuscitation room and demonstration room for students. OPD of Obstetrics & Gynecology department is successfully running high risk, family planning, feto-maternal, oncology, infertility and menopausal clinics. Student's demonstration room is equipped with teaching aids like Dummies/Manikins, Couch, White board and illuminator, with adequate seating capacity. The department of Obstetrics & Gynecology is managing all types of cases with high standard of professional and nursing care. Department Obstetrics and Gynecology is recognized by CPSP for post graduate training since 2011.

All procedures ranging from painless delivery, operative delivery and all major of obsteric and gynaecological procedure and Laparoscopic Gynecological surgeries are being performed by the department of Obstetrics & Gynecology. Farooq Hospital has all advanced tertiary care diagnostic facilities like colour Doppler, Ultrasound, 3D, 4D, & TVS, CT Sacn and MRI.

Head of Department

Prof. Dr. Saqib Siddiq

MBBS, MCPS, MS
Professor

The department of Obstetrics & Gynecology is headed by Prof. Dr. Saqib Siddiq. He has served as professor Obs & Gynane in SIMS/Services Hospital Lahore. He was an important member of the team who successfully pioneered IVF (Test Tube Baby) Programme in Pakistan in 1989. He has the singular honor of introducing ICSI technology in this country which is the treatment for male infertility.